

Our experience and our know-how for your safety

Färber & Schmid
Chemie · Technik

Engineering and Consulting, Customer Service Laboratory

Take advantage of our production knowledge and our extensive chemical-technical expertise.

We keep our finger on the pulse of the latest developments on your behalf, and we have a sixth sense safe handling of hazardous substances.

Customer orientation and pragmatic action are more than lip service with us; they reflect our daily business philosophy.

Consulting and planning

- for galvanic technology
- for coating and varnishing technology
- regulatory support for operating licenses

Concepts and functional specifications

- for industrial waste water treatment plants
- for clean and ultra-pure water supply
- computing water usage, waste water and irrigation water quantities
- analysis and definition of processing steps in galvanic and coating technology

Chemical safety

- producing/updating safety data sheets and product chains based on the state of the art
- legally compliant shipment and storage of chemicals
- risk analyses in handling chemicals
- permanent conformity updated to the current legal status

Customer service lab

- process analysis
- refinement of processes and products
- customer-specific product developments
- water and waste water analysis

